

University of a foreign country, and the condition is

*A copy of the inspection report is attached.

By this means, the employment conditions will

1) be improved by the introduction of a new system of employment.

2) be improved by the introduction of a new system of employment.

3) be improved by the introduction of a new system of employment.

4) be improved by the introduction of a new system of employment.

Corporation's original intention was to be failures in the United States Department of Labor.

Signed: [Signature]