Research Abstracts/Publications :

It is anticipated that students will be included as co-investigators on one or more research abstracts submitted to national research meetings based on their participation in a research project. Students who are able to successfully write a manuscript for journal submission of their research findings will be identified as the first or co-author of any paper submitted for publication.

Other Activities/ Expectations/Opportunities: Although the primary focus of the internship is basic and clinical research and writing, and it is expected that this will comprise 90% of an intern's time. However, there will also be opportunity to engage in other academic or research activities such as lectures and seminars.
