asked individuals (in the past) to "test" the survey and make a note of how long it takes to determine completion time. Employees will receive a unique login- s randomly assigned- so there is no way to associate the survey with an employee and his or her employee's responses.

Wilkerson mentioned there were some employees who do not have email addresses. Wilkerson will determine who they are. Duggins clarified that there will be no paper surveys collected and that the survey will only be distributed electronically.

The next step will be a planning meeting with Wilkerson and Hill to discuss logistics. The Staff Senate will
